The Wisdom Of The Saints - Faith

“You will never be happy if your happiness depends on getting solely what you want. Change the focus, get a new center, will what God wills, and your joy no man shall take from you.”

Blessed Fulton Sheen

We strive to be the living presence of Jesus Christ in our community life, our worship of God and forming our children and adults in the Catholic Faith. We, as a parish, believe in good stewardship of what God has given us by sharing our gifts of time, talent and treasure with others.

Never too late to sign up for online giving!

Online giving makes it easy to donate to St. Mary of the Rockies. You never have to worry about bringing a check or cash to church. It saves you the cost of a stamp if you mail your donation and it saves the cost of offertory envelopes for the church! You can use your checking/savings account, Mastercard or Visa debit card, or your Mastercard, Visa, or Discover credit card.

It is quick and easy to set up. You pick the amount of your offering and the frequency of your donation. At the end of the year you can print out your donation record for use with your tax filing.

Go to our website, stmaryrockies.org, and just click on the online giving box at the bottom of the page to get started! Contact the office if you have any questions or need help with setting up your account.

The Belles of St. Mary of the Rockies

The Belles of St. Mary is a Women's Ministry that provides fellowship, support, spiritual growth, and opportunities for women to discover their gifts and talents.

The Belles seek to glorify God through supporting the Pastor's vision, working with all other parish ministries and expanding our outreach to the community.

All women are welcome. If you are interested in learning more about the Belles' Ministry please feel free to attend one of our monthly meetings on the second Wednesday of each month in the Church's social hall at 2:00PM.

Next meeting Wednesday, November 13

The Secret To Making Scripture Come Alive

The Essence of Lectio Divina

Lectio Divina is a personal encounter with God through Scripture.

Lectio Divina establishes a dialogue between the reader of Scripture and God.

Lectio Divina aims at heart-to-heart intimacy with God.

For our purposes we will describe the process of Lectio Divina with five simple terms: listening, understanding, reflecting, praying, and acting.

Listening. Reading a sacred text with expectancy, trusting that God will speak His word to us through the page, is best described as a deep listening.

In his monastic Rule, St. Benedict described this kind of reading as hearing "with the ear of our heart": God speaks and we listen.

The key to this deep listening is reading the biblical text with as little prejudice as possible—as if we were hearing it for the first time. We can't listen fully to God if we think we already know what the text is going to tell us. Rather, this expectant reading requires that we create a space within ourselves for the new insight and wisdom God wants to give us through the sacred page.

This deep listening requires careful, fully attentive reading, engaging our mind, our imagination, our emotions, and our will. It can be helpful to read aloud, so that we see the words with our eyes, form them with our lips, and hear them with our ears. We savor the words of the sacred literature, appreciating the images, envisioning the scene, feeling the sentiments, and allowing the words to move from our heads to our hearts. (continued in next bulletin)

Music and Choir - Music is a wonderful way to give praise to the Lord. Your participation is welcome whether you have little time or a lot. If you enjoy singing or playing an instrument, consider becoming a valuable addition to this ministry. The time commitment varies.

My friend David had his ID stolen. Now he is just Dav.
