The Wisdom Of The Saints - Anxiety

“Anxiety is the greatest evil that can befall a soul except sin. God commands you to pray, but he forbids you to worry.”

St. Francis de Sales

We strive to be the living presence of Jesus Christ in our community life, our worship of God and forming our children and adults in the Catholic Faith. We, as a parish, believe in good stewardship of what God has given us by sharing our gifts of time, talent and treasure with others.

WHAT IS ORDINARY TIME?

The season of Ordinary Time begins on Monday (or Tuesday if the feast of the Baptism of the Lord is celebrated on that Monday) after the Sunday following January 6 and continues until the day before Ash Wednesday, inclusive. It begins again on the Monday after Pentecost and ends on the Saturday before the First Sunday of Advent. It consists of 33 or 34 weeks. The last Sunday is celebrated as the solemnity of Christ the King. The overall purpose of the season is to elaborate the themes of salvation history.

The various liturgical seasons are characterized in part by the scriptural readings and Mass prayers assigned to each of them. During Advent, for example, the readings are messianic. During the Easter season the readings are from the Acts of the Apostles, chronicling the Resurrection and the original proclamation of Christ by apostles and from the Gospel of John. During Lent baptismal and penitential passages are focused on. Mass prayers reflect the meaning and purpose of the various seasons.

6 IDEAS FOR ORDINARY TIME

Advent has its wreath, its candles, its hymns—all of which culminate in Christmas. Lent has ashes, fasting, Stations of the Cross—followed by the Resurrection. It's easy to be energized and excited about the Faith during the high holy days. But Ordinary Time? It's just so, well, ordinary.

How do you stay involved and engaged when Sundays seem to run together and the next liturgical high point is weeks or months away?

Attending daily Mass, saying the Rosary, and going on confession more frequently are all very good practices to incorporate during Ordinary Time. But for something a little bit different, try one or more of these six ideas, which are both a little different and deeply rooted in our traditions.

O *To the guy who invented zero,
Thanks for nothing.*

QUIZ: This priest and missionary helped those suffering from the debilitating disease and horribly disfiguring disease of leprosy, eventually dying a leper himself. He is known as the "Apostle to the Lepers."

THE GIVER OF LIFE

Reflect

In the Nicene Creed, we recite, "I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life." Do we remember that in our daily lives? Do we thank the Lord for sustaining us? The Holy Spirit is our breath, and our lives cannot exist without this spiritual oxygen.

Pray

Holy Spirit,
You are the breath in my lungs, the air I breathe.
Let each of those breaths fill me with the peace and comfort of knowing you are with me—in me, around me, and for me.
Let each breath remind me of your presence and love.
Amen.

Act

Sit quietly in an area free of distractions and concentrate on your breath. Don't try to change or manipulate it; just watch it with your mind's eye. Imagine the Holy Spirit as the air that flows in and out of your lungs, and feel the Spirit's holy presence.

Ten Principles Of Civil Communication:

Whether around the family table, the office water cooler, the neighborhood barbecue, or even on Facebook, we can remove obstacles to evangelization, to the sacraments, to Christ. We can defend our Catholic faith without raising our voices.

- 5. Think in triangles. We tend to have disjointed, meandering discussions about faith, which could confuse people engaging in the discussion. Try not to get distracted, and stay on the point. Have three points and know how they relate to one another. You may not get through them all, but if you do, go back to them. Like Pope Francis is begging us to never tire of asking God for His forgiveness, don't be afraid to repeat your most compelling message. If it's worth hearing it bears repeating.
- 6. Be positive. So many people see the Church as a list of prohibitions. Yet, the Church calls us to the fullness of life. The Church is not a grim-faced moral cop. Share your experience of your parish and the joy of the life of the Gospel in the spirit of Mother Teresa—a Christian who was attentive to the most forgotten. Point to her and countless contemporary saintly lives you know.
