The Wisdom Of The Saints - Generosity

"Men lose all the material things they leave behind them in this world, but they carry with them the reward of their charity and the alms they give. For these they will receive from the Lord the reward and recompense they deserve." St. Francis of Assisi

We strive to be the living presence of Jesus Christ in our community life, our worship of God and forming our children and adults in the Catholic Faith. We, as a parish, believe in good stewardship of what God has given us by sharing our gifts of time, talent and treasure with others.

WHAT IS ORDINARY TIME?

ORDINARY TIME THROUGH THE WEEK

Early Church history and tradition teaches that each day of the week has a theme which can help us to celebrate Ordinary Time. Here are some fun and simple activities you could choose to celebrate.

Tuesday - Honor the Apostles The apostles are the focus on Tuesdays. This is an opportunity to get to know the men that our priests and bishops have followed. Their lives and personalities are revealed in the Gospels. Learn and recite:

Act of Faith: O my God, I firmly believe that you are one God in three divine Persons, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. I believe that your divine Son became man and died for our sins and that He shall come to judge the living and the dead. I believe these and all the truths, because you have revealed them, Who can neither deceive or be deceived.

More to do: read about the apostles, skim the gospels for any reference to them; memorize their names; mark their feast days with a celebration; choose one as an intercessor for your priests, pastor, and bishop and pray to them often.

Wednesday - Honor St. Joseph St. Joseph is honored on Wednesdays. He is patron of families and especially fathers. Great topics for discussion are fatherhood, being a hard worker, and knowing Jesus intimately. Learn and recite:

Act of Hope: Oh my God, relying on your almighty power and infinite mercy and promises, I hope to obtain pardon for my sins, the help of your grace, and life everlasting, through the merits of Jesus Christ, my Lord and Redeemer.

On Wednesdays you could also: have a Dad's day, learn about temperance, discuss obedience, pray a St. Joseph prayer, make a family-tree centerpiece.

My grandfather said back in the day you could go to the store, have $2 in your pocket, and come out with a loaf of bread, a dozen eggs and even butter.

He said now they have cameras everywhere.

Peace, the Marker of Faith

Spiritual writers tell us that a sure sign of life lived with faith in God is peace, the inner kind of peace that enables you to rest in it with no worry or anxiety. When the risen Lord appears in the midst of the disciples just back from Emmaus and says to them first off, "Peace be with you," that's the sort of peace He is talking about and wishing for them.

That peace doesn't seem to be something easy to come by, something that simply plops into the lap of your soul. More than anything it seems to be the fruit of prayerfulness - sometimes praying the rosary or other traditional prayers and sometimes just simply sitting in the quiet, in the midst of love without having to say any words.

There is something about surrendering to God's love over the course of many lived days that eventually brings us to that sort of trusting peace.

The thing about such peace is that only you know if it's genuine. When you feel peace when life turns topsy-turvy, that's God's peace. When life is progressing smoothly, its not easy to know if that's God's peace or just a life without turbulence.

But if you are at peace when everything else around you is not, that's when you know it's the presence of God that has you all wrapped up in worry-free wonder.
