St. Joseph—A Patron for Us All

Sacrificial and Selfless

Because of his deep faith, Joseph trusted that God would provide for him because he was doing what was right—what was truly just. He obeyed God knowing that the associated costs could be great, and for all we know they might have been. Consider what ramifications could flow from this small-town carpenter's acceptance and protection of a woman most believed was an adulterer. That would only make sense according to the Christian logic of obedience and sacrifice. In this context, Jesus was formed in a family and school of love that prepared Him to one day, in love and obedience, lay down His life for our salvation.

St. Joseph loved God above all and desired to accept his role in God's plan for the salvation of mankind. In love, he laid down his life for his beloved Mary and the divine Son she bore. And it was this heart full of love that enabled him to endure whatever difficulty came his way. The Communion Antiphon for the feast of St. Joseph the Worker takes a line from St. Paul's Letter to the Colossians that very fittingly sums up St. Joseph: "Whatever you do, in word or deed, do everything in the name of the Lord." (3:17) Scripture tells us that St. Joseph worked as a carpenter (see Mt 13:55). But perhaps it was love more than carpentry that we should understand as St. Joseph's real labor.

Our Sunday Visitor (continued in next bulletin)

Employment Opportunity

Our parish Administrative Assistant/Office Manager, Janice Kraft, will be retiring at the end of this year. Fr. Bogdan is recruiting to fill this vacancy with a start date sometime the end of November or the first week of December. This is a part-time position working Monday-Thursday, 9:00AM-2:00PM. Salary will be determined by Fr. Bogdan based on qualifications.

You can get a copy of the job description and application form by contacting the office starting Monday.

Deadline for applications is November 20th

Easy fundraising for the Church - Both King Soopers and Safeway participate in a shoppers' reward program which donates a percentage of the money spent at their store to St. Mary of the Rockies. Our parish receives approximately $700 annually from the rewards programs.

The Safeway program has a reloadable card. Each time you add money to that card a percentage is donated to the Church. With King Soopers you do not need a separate card. You add your existing loyalty card account information to their website and a percentage of what you spend goes to the Church. You can find a link to sign up on the Church's website. Safeway cards are available through the office.

You don't need a parachute to go sky-diving. You need one to go sky-diving twice.

St. Mary of the Rockies Social Hour
Free coffee and donuts.
Come join us! In the Church basement
Sunday, November 9th following the 9:00AM Mass.

We strive to be the living presence of Jesus Christ in our community life, our worship of God and forming our children and adults in the Catholic Faith. We, as a parish, believe in good stewardship of what God has given us by sharing our gifts of time, talent and treasure with others.
