St. Joseph—A Patron for Us All

A Special Patron—In 2020, Pope Francis wrote of St. Joseph:

Jesus told us: “Learn from me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart” (Mt 11:29). The lives of the saints too are examples to be imitated. St. Paul explicitly says this: “Be imitators of me!” (1Cor 4:16). By his eloquent silence, St. Joseph says the same. (Patris Corde)

Still in silence Joseph slips away from the Scriptures sometime between the Holy Family’s return to Nazareth and the beginning of Jesus’ public ministry. Although called in his litany the “light of patriarchs,” unlike the great patriarchs of old Joseph’s own burial place is unknown—a reminder of his poverty and obscurity. It is presumed that he died with Mary and Jesus alongside him. For this reason, the Church has encouraged us to pray to him so that we, too, can die in their company. St. Joseph has long been invoked as patron of a happy death. Prayer:

Hail Guardian of the Redeemer, spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary.
To you God entrusted His only Son;
in you Mary placed her trust;
With you Christ became man.
Blessed Joseph, to us too,
show yourself a father
and guide us in the path of life.
Obtain for us grace, mercy and courage,
and defend us from every evil. Amen

(Our Sunday Visitor)

St. Mary of the Rockies continues to have need for people who can share their God-given talents in the continued development of the parish. Areas in need of volunteers most are those involved in Mass Ministry: Collections, Lector, Sacristan, and Offertory Counter.

Please consider helping in these most important ministries.

WELCOME NEW PARISHIONERS

Those Catholics living in the area and regularly participating in the Liturgy are asked to register as members of the parish. Simply attending Mass does not make one a registered member. We would like to be able to communicate with you and you will learn about parish events or special notifications by email.

Registration is easy; contact the Parish Office 303-838-2375. Or registration forms can be found in the main vestibule of the church. Just fill it out and drop it into the offertory basket.

*I was going to try an all almond diet,
but that's just nuts!*

We strive to be the living presence of Jesus Christ in our community life, our worship of God and forming our children and adults in the Catholic Faith. We, as a parish, believe in good stewardship of what God has given us by sharing our gifts of time, talent and treasure with others.
