How to Cultivate

EMPATHY

Who Needs Empathy?

Empathy helps us to resolve disagreements as we strive to understand what others are thinking and to communicate what may not change our minds about an issue, but we can often reach consensus by moving in a new direction. Sometimes, empathy leads to a point where we agree to disagree.

Empathy is desperately needed in our increasingly troubled world. As Catholics, we are called to empathize with the plight of anyone in need—strangers, immigrants, refugees, people who are sick or disabled, victims of natural or man-made disasters, people who are grieving, and people who are going through a difficult time.

We cannot always solve other people's problems, but we can try to understand their pain, their struggles, and their hardships.

"Amid a culture of indifference which not infrequently turns ruthless, our style of life should instead be devout—filled with empathy, compassion, and mercy drawn daily from the wellspring of prayer".

Pope Francis (Homily, December 24, 2015)

What Did Jesus Do?

Jesus is our model for the three different types of empathy:

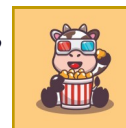

1. Cognitive empathy is a calm, rational understanding of someone else's thoughts and feelings—almost in an intellectual sense. This kind of empathy is a skill that medical professionals use in diagnosing a patient's condition. They don't feel what the person is feeling. They just understand it. Jesus exhibited cognitive empathy when he encountered the rich young man, who asked how he could attain eternal life. Jesus told him that he needed to sell everything, give the money to the poor, and become a disciple. This rich, young man walked away because he had many possessions. Jesus does not try to fix the situation. He allows the man to leave and looks at him with love (see Mk 10:17-22). (continued in next bulletin)

WELCOME NEW PARISHIONERS

Those Catholics living in the area and regularly participating in the Liturgy are asked to register as members of the parish. Simply attending Mass does not make one a registered member. We would like to be able to communicate with you and you will learn about parish events or special notifications by email.

Registration is easy; contact the Parish Office 303-838-2375. Or registration forms can be found in the main vestibule of the church. Just fill it out and drop it into the offertory basket.

They go to the moo-vie

We strive to be the living presence of Jesus Christ in our community life, our worship of God and forming our children and adults in the Catholic Faith. We, as a parish, believe in good stewardship of what God has given us by sharing our gifts of time, talent and treasure with others.
