THE HOLY SPIRIT

The Work Of The Holy Spirit - The Holy Spirit makes Christ known to us (see CCC 687). He does not directly reveal himself, but does so through Jesus' teachings and His inner promptings in our soul, mind, and heart. Such movements of the Holy Spirit guide us in the way of truth in business dealings, home life and personal decisions.

Blessings Of the Holy Spirit - The Holy Spirit exercises a powerful influence on believers. Those open to His promptings receive the "gifts of the Holy Spirit." They are rooted in Isaiah 11:1-3 and include wisdom, understanding, counsel, fortitude, knowledge, piety, and fear of the Lord.

As we strive to live by these gifts, the Holy Spirit gives us the first glimpse of eternal blessedness in the form of special fruits. Traditionally, these "fruits of the Holy Spirit" are identified as: charity, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, generosity, gentleness, faithfulness, modesty, self-control, and chastity (see Gal 5:22-23). Just as fruit grows on a tree, well-nourished by the sun and water, so these fruits grow in the souls of those who are nourished by the gifts of the Holy Spirit. (continued in next bulletin)

Mass.

What is a Mass Intention? Whenever a priest celebrates Mass, he has at least two specific intentions. The first intention is to celebrate the Mass according to the rubrics the Church provides for how to say the Mass. The second is to apply the grace of that Mass toward a specific need or intention. A Mass intention is a specific petition for which the Mass is offered. Mass intentions can be requested on behalf of another living person—for example, the healing of someone who is sick—or to commemorate a wedding anniversary. However, Mass intentions are most commonly offered in remembrance of a person who has died. We don't "pay for Masses," because we cannot possibly afford it, since the value of the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass is infinite. But it's good for the faithful to request a Mass for a specific intention and at the same time to make an offering to the priest to help support him. The usual stipend for the priest is $10.

If you would like to offer a Mass intention for friends, family or a loved one, please call the office. 303-838-2375

We strive to be the living presence of Jesus Christ in our community life, our worship of God and forming our children and adults in the Catholic Faith. We, as a parish, believe in good stewardship of what God has given us by sharing our gifts of time, talent and treasure with others.
